

Youth Pastor

Description

We are a Korean Presbyterian Church of Indianapolis under PCUSA, located in Indianapolis, Indiana with an average Sunday attendance of about 250 including youth.

We are seeking a part-time English speaking youth pastor to shepherd the youths (30-40 in 6th-12th grades) for 15-20 hours a week including preparation time.

Responsibilities include:

- Leading Sunday worship for youths.
- Leading Friday night activities and bible study.
- Developing relationships with youth, teachers, parents, and equipping them to serve.
- Offering pastoral care and counseling.
- Organizing special events such as youth mission trips and retreats, and Christmas.
- Communicating with church leaders and PTO

Qualifications:

The candidate needs to be passionate about making disciples and is a team player with the members of the church, under the supervision of the Associate Pastor.

Compensation: based on experience

Benefits: continuing education allowance

If interested, please send the following documents:

- Current seminary student, a copy of a valid student ID card
- Resume, copies of undergraduate and seminary diplomas
- If ordained, a copy of the certificate of ordination
- Two recommendation letters (one from a pastor and one from a lay person)
- One recorded sermon
- Personal testimony/Ministry vision statement (1-2 pages)

To submit application documents:

Email to pastorjjc@gmail.com (subject line with KPCI YG Search) or mail to:

Korean Presbyterian Church of Indianapolis Youth Pastor Search Committee c/o Pastor John Cho
1020 E 101st St.
Indianapolis, IN 46280

If you have any questions please contact Pastor John Cho at 317-331-8006. Thank you!